This year has really been what you'd call a "three ring circus" When they say this is a terrific year they're not kidding!

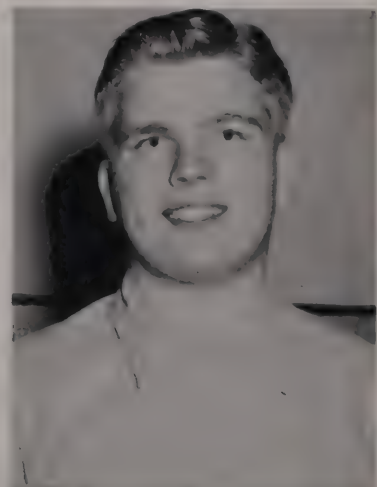

First on our 'program' was election of officers. Jim Thorson, an able ringmaster, was elected president. Working with him were Vic Schultz, vice-president; Norma Isaacson, secretary; and Roland Erickson, treasurer.

Our choice for Homecoming attendant was a cute little redhead by the name of Jane Quale.

Being able to take part in the activities that Central offers was our biggest thrill!

'54 HOMECOMING

As exciting as an opening night at a circus was Central's 1954 Homecoming! Bands blaring and people cheering hailed our Queen. Sharon Dorr. Queen Sharon was elected by Central's males with Jane Quale, junior, and Sonja Dahl, sophomore, attending her royal highness.

Ringmasters for the event were co-chairmen Ann Lincoln and Mary Kay Jacobson who did a bang up job!

Central students, weaving through the downtown streets, worked their way to the bonfire and pep rally. This Thursday night event led off the two day celebration. Friday was the big day when the queen and her attendants were introduced by the 1953 Queen, Shirley Jordahl, at an all school assembly.

Crowning of Queen Sharon climaxed the halftime ceremonies.

The Junior class sports the winning float.

A parade followed with Queen Sharon holding the spotlight in the center ring. Floats entered by the various organizations added color and laughs. The junior class float using the theme "Our Hearts Are In Winning" took first place. The Tri-Y float and senior float placed second and third respectfully.

Crowning of our royalty by Dr. Elroy Schroeder at halftime of the game climaxed the wonderful celebration. The Redskin gridgers came through with a smashing victory to create a real success! Bob Blair, football captain, crowned Queen Sharon again at the Homecoming dance sponsored by Delta Hi-Y. "A dreamy way to end a dreamy day!"

TRI-Y

Taking the center of the ring as the girls' top organization at Central is Tri-Y. With the large membership of 216 girls, the six Tri-Y workshops were kept busy! The Tri-Y workshops are: Service, Ways and Means, Greenleaf, Publicity, Music, and Social.

Working on the Christmas and Easter programs with the Hi-Y's proved to be successful. Among all the worthwhile projects, the giving of food to the needy through the White Gift Service was one of the most beautiful.

The spring formal, always a big event, was a smash hit this year! Sharon Dorr and her committees are given credit for that.

Officers for the year were: Karen Brett, president; Carol Elofson, vice-president; Karen Hippe, secretary; Ann Lincoln, treasurer; Carmen Bloomer, program chairman. Workshop heads were: Sharon Dorr, social; Geraldine McDonald, ways and means; Arlene Hensrud, music; Mary Jo Hjelmstad, service; Mary Kay Jacobson, service, and Georgine Johnson, Greenleaf paper.

Those eligible for the club are second year Latin students. Meetings are held during the fifth hour Latin class every two weeks. Programs are given every meeting but the big event of the year is the spring banquet. Officers for the year were: Robert Sorbo, president; Linda Strobel, vice-president; Marlyn Wilson, secretary-treasurer; and Joy Wood, program chairman.

PROJECTION CLASS

Any movies that are shown around school for various classes or organizations are shown by the projection class. The class also shows movies for the Y.W.C.A., Lions Club, and various other outside organizations. The projection class does not get much recognition but really does deserve a lot of credit. E. G. Eiland is advisor for the group and Richard Haroldson is chief projectionist.

HALL PATROL

Again proving itself valuable to Central was the hall patrol. Under the careful supervision of Rodney Thorpe, chief, and Ernest Pletan, advisor, the hall patrol maintained order and discipline in the halls, study halls, and on the streets outside the school. The game patrol kept order at the sports events. Judge Paul Woutat rendered fair decisions for all court cases. All these things added up to a very successful year for the hall patrol.

PEP CLUB

"Yea Redskins" is a familiar saying with Central's Pep Club. At any of Central's athletic contests, where the cheering seems to be the loudest, you'll find the Pep Club. The Pep Club sponsors a hobnob among other projects. The club tries to promote good sportsmanship and better attendance at games along with better cheering. Under the leadership of Joann Brager, president; Joy Wood, vice-president; and Sally Moore, secretary, the club wrote up a constitution. They met once a week along with the cheerleaders to plan for better support at games.

Girl's Athletic Association, led by president Mary Kay Jacobson, had another successful year. Their object is to promote good sportsmanship and fair play and to give girls a chance to engage in sports. G.A.A. sponsored a hob-nob and many other projects. Their sports include volleyball, basketball, softball, and many other sports. Letters are awarded to the girls for attendance and participation.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council could well be called the "Voice of Democracy" at Central. Each homeroom elects one representative and one alternate to the council. These representatives bring the problems of the students before the council to be straightened out. All representatives must maintain a "C" in scholastic average and a "B" in deportment.

Each year some representatives are sent to the State Student Council Convention. This year the convention was held at Fargo with Sally Widen, Mary Kay Jacobsen, Janice Nygaard, Wayne Kobberdahl, John Jarrett, and John Stone attending. Officers for the year were Wayne Kobberdahl, president; Paul Woutat, vice-president; and Mary Kay Jacobsen, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Evju is advisor for the group.

STAGE CREW

'Prof' Sheets is a familiar figure around the halls of Central and equally familiar around the stage of Central. For if it were not for 'Prof' and his hard working stage crew, Central would not have many of the fine productions it has. The boys give up their free time to put in many long hours working on the stage, while 'Prof' is a willing and able advisor.

The crew is made up of freshmen through senior boys with the older boys doing the more advanced work. The boys receive nothing for their work except good experience but really deserve a lot of credit!

H.M.S.

H.M.S. Pinafore, a comical operetta by Gilbert and Sullivan, centers around the attentions of Josephine, the captain's daughter. She is in love with a common sailor, Ralph Rackstraw. The captain wants her to marry Sir Joseph, the admiral of the Navy. Buttercup, a gypsy bumboat woman, admits that she mixed up Ralph and the Captain when they were very young. Everything turns out all right and Josephine marries Ralph, who is now the captain.

Maroon robes with gray collars mark this fine chorus which presents an operetta, an annual concert, a Christmas program, and sings for many various civic groups. Entering in the eastern divisional contest each year, Central has taken many honors. The chorus produced fine soloists such as Karen Hippe, Arlene Hensrud, Carol Elofson, Bob Sorbo, John Stone, Fraine Zeitler, and Felix Vondracek.

FOOTBALL '54

The Redskins got their season underway in the last two weeks of August under head coach Bob Pesky and assistant coach Ken Rio. Central's home opener saw the Redskins go down to defeat by a powerful Bemidji squad, 34 to 6. The 'Skins' touch-down coming on a pass from Pat McCann to Dave Grinnell.

The week-end following the 'Skins traveled to Park River where they defeated a stubborn Aggie team 13 to 6.

This year's Homecoming saw the Redskins roll over Grafton 46 to 0. Neil Wilson bulled over for two Central T.D.'s.

Central then journeyed to Fargo where they were defeated in the Midget's Homecoming game, 21 to 6. The game's big hi-lite being Tim Skinner's fourth quarter 82 yard run, which set up Central's lone touchdown.

The 'Skins then played St. James on Hilden Field, where the boys were beaten by a tough Jimmie squad, 19 to 13. Both Redskin touchdowns were scored by Jack Jacoby.

The Green Wave from East Side next invaded Central, only to be beaten on their Homecoming by a score of 14 to 6.

The last two games showed the Redskins being defeated by Wahpeton and tying Devil's Lake by scores of 27-20, and 13-13 respectively.

The 'Skins played fine football and gained many moral victories which will help greatly in the years to come.

BASKETBALL '54-'55

This year, under coach Fritz Engel, the Redskins turned in a season of fine basketball. The team tied Park River for first place in the East, and came out second in the Eastern Tournament. The 'Skins opened against St. James, and won in a very exciting game. The next week-end the boys beat Shanley, and the next night were trimmed by Minot at Minot in a real thriller. The following week-end the Redskins topped Devil's Lake 51 to 48, and whipped Grafton 60 to 34. The team then clipped Fargo 50 to 43, but were beaten by the Green Wave 27 to 35. The Redskins gained a split the next week-end also, by beating Valley City 63 to 49, and losing to Minot 42 to 50. They were then trounced by the Aggies 39 to 54. Central took a trip South, beating both Wahpeton and Fargo. The following week-end the Redskins avenged Park River 67 to 59, and trimmed Thief River 53 to 48. Next they beat Wahpeton 56 to 47, and then were clobbered by Grafton 47 to 66. The Green Wave was again victorious over the 'Skins and then the boys beat the Prowlers 66 to 53, thus ending the regular season.

The Redskins went to Fargo the next week-end for the Eastern Divisional Tournament. The boys were successful in beating Wahpeton and Grafton, but were beaten by Park River in the Championship game.

At the State Tournament here, the Redskins were beaten in two straight games by Minot and Valley City, putting them out of contention.

The Redskins finished the season with an over-all record of 16 wins and 9 losses.

The basketball team should be very strong next year with all returning except Jacoby.

HOCKEY '54-'55

Central's hockey team had another successful season under their new coach, Carl Morken. With many returning lettermen, the Redskins had a well-trained, experienced squad. Co-captains of this year's hockey team are Curtis "Moe" Geatz and Stanley "Stan The Man" Paschke. Meeting the tougher teams of Minnesota first, the 'Skins got off to a shaky start; but they handily defeated all North Dakota teams they faced, and ended the season with a very impressive record.

TRACK

It looks as though track is beginning to boom here at Central, for over 65 boys checked out equipment. This was the largest number of candidates in many years. Coach Louis King got the boys to work even before the snow was gone, by working them in the halls and the gym.

The remaining lettermen were Lyle Lariviere, Dick Halvorson, Tim Skinner, George McKinnon, and Paul Woutat. Halvorson and McKinnon were elected team co-captains. The entire team made a very good showing of themselves during the season, and we have reason to be very proud of them. With many lettermen returning next year, prospects look very bright for the 'Skins' track team this year.

ATHLETIC BOARD

The Athletic Board is the group behind all our athletics here at Central. They set admission fees, determine the qualifications for letters, and many other important things. The student athletic manager arranges pep rallies and keeps a scrapbook on the athletic events.

Bob Hentges, State Champ

Bob Westbee, Runner-up

TENNIS

We have a right to be proud of our tennis team, for they went through their entire schedule without losing a match.

The team was composed of Bob Hentges, Bob Westbee, John Saiki, and Bill Fahey.

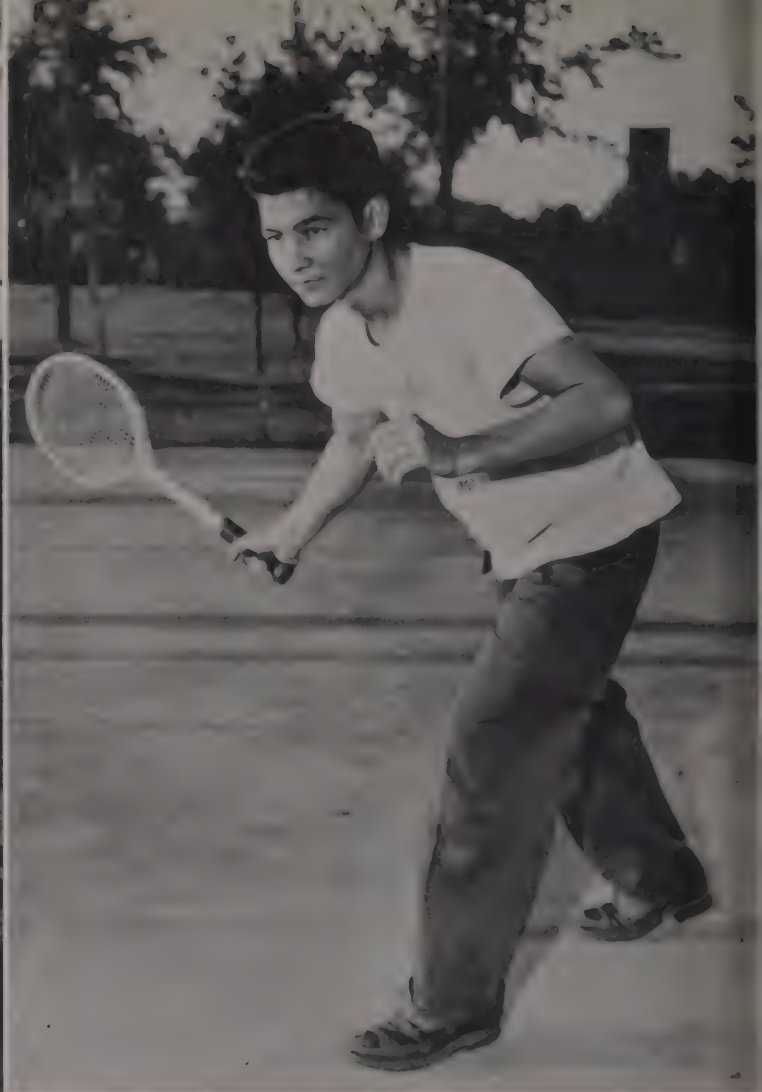

Coach Winter took his boys to the state tournament where they really went to work. Bob Hentges won the singles championship while Bob Westbee was runner-up. The two boys played against each other in the final match.

The student body wishes to express its sincere congratulations to Doc Winter, who is retiring from coaching. The record his teams have compiled in the past gives Central something to be proud of.

GOLF '54

Our golf team last year was built around a nucleus of two returning lettermen, Bob Hanson and Bill Bohnhoff. The other two members of the squad were Dick Sampson and Dave Grinnell. All four earned letters. Bohnhoff, Sampson, and Grinnell were all sophomores, so there is great promise for the future. Hanson was the lone senior.

"FAMOUS LAST WORDS"

Ah, the end at last! With senior privileges coming up, I can't leave without getting in a few last words!

I suppose you've noticed how different the cover is this year. After searching many a long hour, we came upon this little clown who fits our theme perfectly. I think he's kind of cute, don't you? The colors we decided on are beautiful, and different from what you usually find on yearbooks.

The FORX theme, "Under The Big Top," is the product of much concentration on the part of many, but I think it's clever. The different sections of the book fit into the circus theme wonderfully.

This year we have dedicated the FORX to Miss Alice Hale and the always reliable art class. The work they do is taken for granted around here, and we thought this a good way to show our gratitude.

What would a yearbook be if it weren't for pictures? Our sincerest thanks go to Lee-Evanson's, Cooper's, and Nagle's for their co-operation and wonderful photography.

The section heads certainly did a terrific job this year! I want to acknowledge them all for all the hours they spent trying to make the '55 FORX a success. Peggy, thanks for doing such a swell job on the administration and index. That index really takes time and energy. Carmen, you certainly did a good job on the faculty and circulation. Our soliciting would've been a flop if it hadn't been for the long files of business firms. And Mary Kay and Sally, you kids sure had your hands full with the senior section. I'm sure everybody agrees with me in saying that it couldn't have been done better. Karen, I don't know what I'd have done without you this year! The organization and underclassmen sections are really sharp, and the copy fits the theme perfectly. Paul, as Sports Editor you certainly did well. Those layouts are really clever. Norma and Bob, that feature section is a scream! You kids did a fine job in digging up the pictures. Rod and John, thanks for the bang-up job you fellas did in handling all that money. It's really a big undertaking. And Jane, how can I thank you enough for the wonderful art work you did? Those rush jobs certainly put you on the spot at times.

I want to ask the student body to read over the list of sponsors. Without them, it would be impossible to produce a yearbook. SHOW YOUR GRATITUDE BY PATRONIZING THEM!

The student body sure did a fine job in co-operating with us by buying so many books. Thanks kids, it made things a lot easier.

Have you noticed the clever end sheets? Take a look before your friends sign them. We have Bill Julison to thank for his art work on them.

And last, but certainly not least, I want to thank Mr. Fagerstrom, our advisor. He certainly could cheer us up when we needed it the most! Mr. Hanson also was wonderful to us, and gave us some much-needed advice at times.

The American Yearbook Company again did a fine job in publishing the '55 FORX. My sincerest thanks for your help and understanding.

All who worked on the FORX want to thank Mr. Spicer, Mr. Gorman, and all the other custodians who had to put up with us so many late hours.

Well, I'm just about all talked out, and I see those privileges drawing near, so I'll leave you with my sincerest wish that you like our annual.

The Biggest Clown of Them All,

Your Editor,

Pam Rohde
